Holy Baptism and Holy Eucharist are the Sacraments commanded by Christ. "Holy Baptism is full initiation by water and the Holy Spirit into Christ's Body the Church" (Prayer Book, p. 298). "In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit." (p. 306).

We welcome your expression of interest in Holy Baptism at St. Bartholomew's, whether for yourself, for your child, or for your infant. Preparation for baptism includes meeting with one of our clergy and exploring the meaning of Holy Baptism for you. We delight in discussing Holy Baptism, its meaning, and the role of sponsors or godparents.

We also have a preliminary walk-through so that all who will participate in the Baptism will know who will do what, where, when, and with whom. Please call one of the parish clergy at 858-487-2159 to explore your questions and hopes for Holy Baptism. ...The Rev. Fred Thayer, Rector
